

Maritime cruises

HAROPA PORT is at the top level on the English Channel / North Sea coast. Every year, more and more cruise ships - including the largest in circulation - call at Le Havre. A success based on investments and the long-term support of a fast-growing European cruise activity.

- Territorial Department of Le Havre -
Published on 6 February 2019

Maritime cruises on the rise for 10 years

Ideally located on the passage between the North Sea and the Atlantic Ocean, the port of Le Havre offers all the necessary facilities to accommodate the largest and smallest cruise ships, 24 hours a day.

The diversity of the tourist offer in Le Havre, in Normandy and in Paris allows to build visitor faithfulness by offering excursion all year round.

Year after year, Le Havre confirms its touristic attractiveness.

The HAROPA PORT's maritime cruise represents more than 400,000 passengers and nearly 200 stopovers.

Le Havre cruise terminal

The Cruise Terminal located in Pointe de Floride has all the facilities necessary to ensure a quality welcome for passengers in transit or at the start or finish of their journey, and for crew members:

□ Tourist Information Point, distribution of multilingual maps and brochures, check-in counters, baggage control and storage area, baggage scanner, Customs and Border Police office, relaxation area, shop, car and bicycle hire, free WIFI, toilets, defibrillator.

Discover more on Le Havre Etretat Tourisme .